

Lesson 15: Error Intervals

Cool Down: An Angler's Dilemma

A fisherman weighs an ahi tuna (a very large fish) on a scale and gets a reading of 135 pounds. The reading on the scale may have an error of up to 5%. What are two possible values for the actual weight of the fish?